RTC:Rural
Research & Training Center
on Disability in Rural Communities

Social and Community Participation

SEEKING VOLUNTEERS FOR A RESEARCH STUDY

The purpose of this research study is to understand how young adults with disabilities participate in social and community events.

To participate in this research, you must:

- Be 18-34 years old
- Be in or from a town of less than 10,000
- Have had an IEP in high school and/or a current disability

Participation in this study involves:

- A 1-2 hour one-on-one interview
- $50 money order

To find out more information about this study, please contact Dr. Rayna Sage at:

- Email: rayna.sage@umontana.edu
- Phone: 406-243-5233

The University of Montana IRB
Expiration Date 5-14-2019
Date Approved 4-27-2018
Chair/Admin

Study Title: Participation and social capital among young adults with disabilities from and in rural places

Principal Investigator: Dr. Rayna Sage

Research Study: Participation and social capital
Contact: Dr. Rayna Sage
Email: rayna.sage@umontana.edu
Phone: 406-243-5233